

Date	Victim (s)	Media Org	Job description	Description
2011.01.04	Ales Barazienka	The TV channel Belsat	Cameraman	The apartment of cameraman of the journalist was searched . Mr.Barazienka was taken in for questioning as a witness in the case of mass rioting. After the questioning the journalist was released.
2011.01.06	Viktoryja Kolchyna	The TV channel Belsat	Journalist	Viktoryja Kolchyna making a film about Belarusian journalists who had died under mysterious circumstances was questioned at the KGB by an investigator.
2011.01.08	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	The journalist was forcibly taken to the KGB for a "talking" .
2011.01.10	Anatol Bukas	The regional newspaper Borisovskije Novosti	Editor-in-chief	The residence of Anatol Bukas was searched in the framework of investigation of the criminal case on the mass rioting in Minsk on December 19, 2010 in order to discover "instruments of crime".
2011.01.11	Larysa Shchyrakova	The TV channel Belsat	Journalist	The apartment of the journalist in Homiel was searched .
2011.01.12	Iryna Khalip	The Russian newspaper Novaya Gazeta	Reporter	The search was made in the apartment of the journalist, who was holding in the KGB prison, as well as in the apartment of Iryna Khalip's parents.
2011.01.12	Andrej Bastuniets	The Belarusian Association of Journalists	Deputy chairman	Mr.Bastuniets was questioned at the KGB for about three hours as a witness in the case of the events in Minsk on December 19.
2011.01.12	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	The KGB officers searched the apartment of the journalist. As a result recording media were seized.
2011.01.12	Aliaksiej Salej	The newspaper Glos znad Niemna	Photo journalist	The KGB officers searched the apartment of the journalist. As a result recording media were seized.

2011.01.12	Aliaksiej Karol	The newspaper Novy Chas	Editor-in-chief	Mr.Karol was questioned at the Frunzienski district police department in Minsk about the peaceful protest rally on December 19.
2011.01.13	Zhanna Litvina	The Belarusian Association of Journalists	Chairperson	Zhanna Litvina was questioned at the KGB as a witness in the case of the events in Minsk on December 19.
2011.01.13	Maryna Koktysh	The newspaper Narodnaja Volia	Deputy editor-in-chief	Maryna Koktysh was questioned at the KGB as a witness in the criminal case on the mass rioting in Minsk on December 19.
2011.01.13	Katsiaryna Tkachenka		Independent journalist	The search was made in the apartment where the journalist was registered.
2011.01.13	Iryna Charniauka	The TV channel Belsat	Journalist	The apartment of a sister of Iryna Charniauka in Minsk was searched . The journalist stayed there when she came to Minsk. Iryna Charniauka was taken to the KGB for questioning. The KGB officers were interested in the activity of the TV channel Belsat .
2011.01.14	Sviatlana Kalinkina	The newspaper Narodnaja Volia	Editor-in-chief	Sviatlana Kalinkina was interrogated at the KGB .
2011.01.15	Viktar Fiedarovich	The news agency BelaPAN and the online newspaper Naviny.by	Journalist	The KGB officers searched the apartment of the journalist as well as the house of his parents in the framework of the criminal case on the mass rioting.
2011.01.17	Jauhien Vaskovich	The newspaper Bobrujskij Kurjer	Journalist	Policemen detained Jauhien Vaskovich in Mahiliou for ten days for hooliganism (an attack against the building of the KGB). At the same time a search was made at the place where he registered in Babrujsk. On January 27 , it became known that the term of detention of Jauhien Vaskovich was enlarged to two months.
2011.01.17	Andrej Aliksandrau	The Belarusian Association of Journalists	Deputy chairman	Andrej Aliksandrau was questioned as a witness in the criminal case on the mass rioting in Minsk on December 19, 2011.

2011.01.17	Barys Haretski	Radio Racyja	Reporter	Barys Haretski was detained . The incident happened when the journalist was interviewing people standing in a queue with parcels for inmates of the KGB prison. Also, his apartment and the apartment of his brother were searched .
2011.01.18	Alina Suraviets	The Belarusian Association of Journalists	Deputy chairperson	She was questioned as a witness in the criminal case on the mass rioting in Minsk on December 19, 2011.
2011.01.19	Aleh Hruzdilovich	Radio Liberty	Reporter	The journalist who was filming the rally of civic solidarity with political prisoners, that took place near the building of the KGB in Minsk, was detained .
2011.01.19	Uladzimir Chudziansou	Radio Russian News Service	Reporter	Uladzimir Chudziansou was detained together with other participants of the rally of civic solidarity with political prisoners, that took place near the building of KGB in Minsk.
2011.01.24	Hienadz Barbarych	Radio Racyja	Journalist	The journalist was detained by KGB officers. The incident took place when he was interviewing relatives of inmates of the KGB prison near the KGB building.
2011.01.26	Zmicier Janienka	The newspaper Tovarishch	Deputy editor-in-chief	Zmicier Janienka was questioned at the KGB as a witness in the criminal case on the mass rioting in Minsk on December 19, 2011.
2011.02.01	Sviatlana Kalinkina	The newspaper Narodnaja Volia	Editor-in-chief	Sviatlana Kalinkina was repeatedly taken for questioning to the KGB from the editorial office.
2011.02.10	Aliaksandr Lushkievich	The newspaper Narodnaja Volia	Editor of the web site	Aliaksandr Lushkievich was questioned at the KGB and signed the nondisclosure recognizance.
2011.02.10	Barys Haretski	Radio Racyja	Journalist	The journalist received a warning of Prosecutor's Office for working for a foreign media without an accreditation.
2011.02.28	Ksienija Avimava		Photo journalist	Ksienija Avimava was questioned in the police department of the city of Minsk as a witness in the case on the events of December 19, 2011. The reporter believed that records and pictures in her personal blog in the LiveJournal had served as grounds for the questioning.

2011.03.01	Natallia Radzina	The web site Charter'97	Editor	Natallia Radzina who was being under house arrest was taken to the Kobryn district police department for a " prophylactic talking ".
2011.03.10	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Journalist	The journalist received an official warning of Prosecutor's Office of Hrodna region for his working for the Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza without an accreditation.
2011.03.13	Aleh Razhkou	The news agency BelaPAN	Journalist	Aleh Razhkou was detained in Homiel when he had come to the local market to cover a flash mob announced by public activists.
2011.03.16	Siarhiej Balaj	The online newspaper Salidarnasts and the magazine Abazhur	Reporter	Policemen detained the journalist in Astraviets, Hrodna region and brought him to the local police station. He was interviewing local dwellers about their attitude to the construction of the nuclear power station.
2011.03.18	Julija Darashkievich		Photo journalist	Belarusian customs officers seized one hundred copies of the album "Press Photo of Belarus 2010" at the border crossing between Lithuania and Belarus. Those were transported by Julija Darashkievich and her husband in their car.
2011.03.22	Barys Haretski	Radio Racyja	Journalist	Barys Haretski was detained in the court of Partyzanski district in Minsk where he was covering a trial. He was taken to the main office of the KGB where he was questioned during two hours.
2011.03.23	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	Andrzej Poczobut was banned from leaving the territory of Belarus , when he tried to go to Warsaw to participate in the conference "How to Democratize Belarus?"

2011.03.24	Alexander Loshmankin	The news agency Freedom (the city of Samara, Russia)	Editor-in-chief	Russian journalist was detained by transport police and was taken from the train "Chelyabinsk – Brest". The journalist was traveling to Minsk in order to cover the trials of participants in "mass rioting" and possible street rallies on March 25.
2011.03.24	Ales Asiptsou		Independent journalist	Ales Asiptsou was detained on the eve of the Freedom Day and sentenced to three days of administrative arrest for petty hooliganism.
2011.03.24	Robert Baag	Deutschland Radio	Head of the office in Moscow	The journalists who were going to the town of Kamaryn in Homel region to write stories in connection with the anniversary of Charnobyl disaster were brought to the office of the Coast Guard and detained for nine hours.
	Doris Heimann	Rhein-Zeitung	Journalist
2011.03.25	Uladzimir Laptsevich	The news agency BelaPAN	Freelance correspondent	Uladzimir Laptsevich was detained in Mahiliou. He was going to cover the event organized by local democratic activists.
2011.03.25	Uladzislau Staravierau		TV journalist	In Vitsiebsk police officers prevented Uladzislau Staravierau from doing his work . Policemen took the journalist in their service car to the Kastrychnitski district police department. Three hours later they let the reporter to go away. At that time the event which he was going to cover ended.
2011.03.29	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	The KGB officers visited the apartment of Andrzej Poczobut and arrested a part of valuable assets of the journalist. On March 18 a criminal case was opened in relation to the journalist who was charged with "insult of the President of the Republic of Belarus".
2011.04.06	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	Andrzej Poczobut was detained for the three-day term as he was charged with "Insult of the President of the Republic of Belarus". On April 8 , the journalist was informed about opening of another one for "slander of the President of the Republic of Belarus" . On April 9 , his staying in custody was enlarged to two months.

2011.04.12	Aliaksandr Starykievich	The online newspaper Salidarnasts	Editor-in-chief	The Prosecutor General`s Office issued a warning to Aliaksandr Starykievich for "dissemination of unsubstantiated information about the tragic events in the Minsk subway". The warning regarded to his article "Who benefits?" published in the online newspaper Salidarnasts on April 11.
2011.04.14	Anatol Sanatsenka	The newspaper Bobrujskij Kurjer	Editor-in-chief	The Prosecutor's Office of Babrujsk District issued a warning to Anatol Sanatsenka. The reason for the warning was the article of Anatol Sanatsenka in his blog on the web site Belorusskij Partizan about the act of terrorism in the Minsk subway.
2011.04.19	Siarhiej Niarouny	The newspaper Volny Horad	Editor-in-chief	The Prosecutor's Office of Krychau issued a warning to the journalist for his article "Black days" that contained "criticism of activities of senior government officials as well as law-enforcement officials and progress of investigation of the criminal case on the terrorist act in the subway station "Kastrychnitskaja" on April 11".
2011.04.21	Paviel Padabied	The news agency BelaPAN	Cameraman	Police officers detained Paviel Padabied, thus having prevented him to perform his professional duties. The detention took place near the House of Government in Minsk. Policemen checked his identity and took him to a precinct where they held him for an hour and a half.

2011.04.26	Uladzislau Staravierau		Freelance journalist	Policemen in Vitsiebsk rudely detained Uladzislau Staravierau when he was performing his professional duties. Two policemen knocked the journalist on the ground and dragged him trying to take his camcorder away from him. He was taken to a precinct and spent the night in a temporary detention ward.
2011.05.23	Jauhen Wapa	Radio Racyja The weekly of Belarusians in Poland Niva	Chairman of the board Editor-in-chief	Belarusian border guards revoked a visa of Jauhen Wapa. The incident took place when Mr. Wapa was crossing the border to visit Belarus.
2011.05.27	Ivan Roman		Freelance journalist	In Hrodna police detained the journalists who were going to record a video interview of wife of their imprisoned colleague Andrzej Poczobut near the building of the Prosecutor's Office of Hrodna Region.
	Andrej Fralou		Freelance journalist
2011.05.30	Rodion Marinichev	The Russian TV channel Rain	Reporter	Rodion Marinichev was detained and deported from Belarus after his interviewing of journalist Iryna Khalip, wife of former presidential candidate Andrej Sannikau.
2011.06.14	Ihar Bantsar		Journalist	Mr. Bantsar was detained near the entrance to his apartment house in Hrodna. Thus policemen prevented him from attending the court where the criminal case of journalist Andrzej Poczobut began to be heard that day.
2011.06.15	Stanislau Karshunou	The newspaper Brestskaja Gazeta	Journalist	In Brest police detained the journalists to prevent the covering of "public walks" ("silent" protest action) that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks. They were released in about an hour.
	Dzmitry Bosak	The student online radio Start	Staffer
2011.06.15	Barys Charniauski	The Polish TV channel TVP	Cameraman	In Hrodna police detained the journalists to prevent covering of "silent" protest action that

	Agnieszka Lichnerowicz	The Warsaw radio TOK FM	Journalist	took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks.
2011.06.15	Siarhiej Sierabro	The independent web site Narodnyja Naviny	Editor	In Vitsiebsk Siarhiej Sierabro was detained when he came to the central square of the city to take pictures of the rally "Revolution through Social Networks".
2011.06.15	Paviel Sviardlou	the European Radio for Belarus	Reporter	In Minsk police detained the journalist at the Liberty Square.
2011.06.15	Larysa Shchyrakova		Journalist	In Homiel police detained the journalists to prevent the covering of "silent" protest action that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks. They were searched and police reports were drawn up in relation to them.
	Pauluk Mitskievich	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Regional correspondent
2011.06.15	Jauhien Sukhavierkh	The news agency BelaPAN	Reporter	In Maladziechna Jauhien Sukhavierkh was detained despite his press card. The journalist had to delete all images taken with his camera.
2011.06.22	Siarhiej Balaj	The online newspaper Salidarnasts	Photo journalist	In Minsk police detained the journalists to prevent the covering of "public walks" ("silent" protest action) that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks. All detained journalists were taken to the Centralny district department for internal affairs where they were held for about an hour and then released without drawing up of police reports.
	Ruslan Ryndzievich	The news agency Interfax-West	Photo journalist
	Paviel Padabied	The news agency BelaPAN	Cameraman
	Ales Barazienka		Freelance cameraman
	Aleh Hruzdilovich	Radio Liberty	Reporter
	Ales Piletski	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Reporter
2011.06.22	Aliaksandr Sajenka		Reporter	In Hrodna police detained the journalist to prevent covering of "silent" protest action that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks.

2011.06.22	Siarhiej Salaviej		Journalist	In Zhodzina (Minsk region) police detained the journalist to prevent the covering of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks.
2011.06.22	Siarhiej Karpienka	The TV channel Belsat	Reporter	In Hrodna Siarhiej Karpienka was detained during the “silent” protest action. Police drew up two reports in relation to him, for petty hooliganism and for disobedience to police.
2011.07.29	Ales Liauchuk	The news agency BelaPAN	Journalist	In Brest police detained the journalists to prevent covering of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks.
	Milana Kharytonava		Photo journalist
2011.06.27	Nick Sturdee	The British TVchannel BBC	Journalists	The Embassy of Belarus in London informed the journalists that their visas were revoked . The journalists had valid Belarusian visas and accreditation at the Foreign Ministry of Belarus and planned to visit the country for the Independence Day (July 3).
	Lucy Ash
2011.06.22	Ales Piletski		Reporter	In Minsk police detained the journalist in the short run to prevent the covering of “public walks” (“silent” protest action) that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks. About 8 o’clock in the evening photo journalist Uladz Hrydzin was detained the second time. The journalists were released after the interference of press secretary of the City Department for Internal Affairs of Executive Committee the City of Minsk.
	Uladz Hrydzin	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Photo journalist
	Vadzim Zamirouski	The newspaper Belgazeta	Journalist
	Alina Radashchynskaja		Freelance Journalist
	Vadzim Shmyhau	The news agency BelaPAN	Reporter
	Ksienija Avimava	The news agency BelaPAN	Reporter
	Paviel Ptashnikau	The news agency	Photo journalist

		Interfax-West
	Katsiaryna Barysievich	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Reporter
	Alena Talkachova	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Reporter
	Siarhiej Hapon	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Reporter
	Ugis Libietis		Journalist
	Oleg Boldyrev	The Russian service of BBC	Reporter
	Maxim Lomakin	The Russian service of BBC	Cameraman
2011.07.03	Mikhail Karnievich	Radio Liberty	Reporter	In Hrodna the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks. Mikhail Karnievich and Grażyna Shalkievich were detained as participants of an unauthorized mass event.
	Grażyna Shalkievich	Radio Racyja	Reporter
	Aliaksandr Dzianisau		Journalist
	Andrej Fralou		Journalist
	Mikalaj Dziatchenia		Journalist
	Yuryj Humianiuk		Journalist
	Ihar Bantsar		Journalist
	Hanna Naumovich		Journalist
2011.07.03	Pavel Sviardlou	The European Radio for Belarus	Correspondent	In Minsk the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action

	Yulia Darashkevich		Photo reporter	that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks. The objective lens of Ksienija Avimava 's camera was broken during the detention.
	Ales` Barazenska		TV journalist
	Ihar Ilyash	The newspaper Belorusy i rynek	Journalist
	Agnieshka Lihnierovich	Polish press agency	Journalist
	Ksieniya Avimava		Photo reporter
2011.07.03	Anatol` Paplauny	Human rights center Viasna	Photo reporter	In Homiel the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of "silent" protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Aliena Hermanovich	The news agency BelaPAN	Correspondent
	Yauhenij Suvorau	The web site Silnyje novosti	Administrator
2011.07.03	Ales Asiptsou	The news agency BelaPAN	Journalist	In Mahiliou the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of "silent" protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Alina Skrabunova		Online journalist
	Hanna Illina		Online photo journalist
2011.07.06	Vadzim Zamirouski	The newspaper Belgazeta	Photo reporter	In Minsk the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of "silent" protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Aliaksandr Jarashevich	Radio Racyja	Journalist
	Aleh Hruzdzilovich	Radio Svaboda	Correspondent
	Jahor Martsinovich	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Journalist
	Anton Matolka	The web-site Tut.by	Photo journalist
	Siarhiej Kavaliou		Freelance journalist

	Aliena Yakzhyk	The online newspaper Salidarnasc	Correspondent
	Andrej Yelisieyeu	Euroradio	Journalist
	Yauhien Shapchyts		Freelance TV journalist
	Siarhiey Kutsuk	The news agency Interfax-Zapad	Correspondent
	Andrej Aliaksandrovich	The online newspaper Yezhednievnik	Deputy editor
	Georgij Grivennyj	The TV channel NTV , Russia	Correspondent
	Konstantin Morozov		Cameraman
	Dmitrij Davydienko		Sound producer
	Paviel Antonov		Producer
	Nasta Mantsevich	Euroradio	Correspondent
2011.07.06	Viktar Masalovich	The newspaper Bobrujskij Kurjer	Journalists	In Babrujsk the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Viktar Kachan
	Siarhiey Latsinski	Babrujski Regiyanalny Partal	Online journalists
	Aliaksandr Sushcheuski
2011.07.06	Ihar Bantsar		Journalist	In Hrodna the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks. Palina Zhurauliova was attacked by unknown women – policewomen, as she found out later. They grabbed her and passed to plain-clothed men. The latter roughly dragged her to a bus.
	Ales` Dzianisau		Journalist
	Andrej Fralou		Freelance cameraman
	Mikalaj Dziatchenia		Journalist
	Palina Zhurauliova	The newspaper Vechernij	Reporter

		Grodno
2011.07.06	Aliaksandr Mushdabayeu	The web-site ximik.info	Cameraman	In Navapolatsk the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.06	Ales` Asiptsou	The news agency BelaPAN	Correspondent	In Mahiliou the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.06	Zmitsier Lupach	The newspaper Prefekt-info	Staffer	In Hlybokaye the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.06	Stanislau Korshunau	The newspaper Brestskaya gazeta	Correspondent	In Brest the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.06	Dzmitryj Makarevich	The newspaper Intex-Press	Correspondent	In Baranavichy the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Liudmila Prakopava		Photo reporter
2011.07.06	Volha Rudnitskaya		Online journalist	In Maladzechna the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.13	Maryia Mialiohina	The online newspaper Yezhednievnik	Correspondent	In Minsk the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Aleh Hruzdilovich	Radio Svaboda	Correspondent
	Zahar Shcharbakou	The news agency BelaPAN	Journalist

	Paviel Padabied	The news agency Belapan	Cameraman
2011.07.13	Aliaksandr Muzhdabaeu	The web-site ximik.info	Cameraman	In Navapolatsk the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Aliaksiej Trubkin	Radio Racyja	Journalist
2011.07.13	Tatsiana Husieva	The newspaper Info-Kurjer	Journalist	In Slutsk the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.13	Alies` Sushcheuski	Babrujski Regiyanalny Partal	Online journalist	In Babrujsk the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.13	Paviel Mitskievich	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Correspondent	In Homiel the journalists were detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
	Larysa Shchyrakova		Freelance journalist
2011.07.13	Zmitsier Lupach	The newspaper Prefekt-info	Staffer	In Hlybokaye the journalist was detained to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and was organized through social networks.
2011.07.20	Aliaksandra Klimovich	The TV channel Belsat	Journalist	In Minsk police detained the journalists to prevent covering of one of “silent” protest action that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks.
	Tsimafiej Skibienka		Photo journalist
2011.07.20	Alisa Pol	Radio Racyja	Reporter	In Brest police detained the

	Andrej Lubianchuk		Freelance TV journalist	journalists to prevent covering of one of "silent" protest action that took place on Wednesdays and were organized through social networks.
2011.07.20	Alena Autushka	The local news web site ex-press.by	Journalists	In Barysau the journalists were detained during a "silent" protest rally.
	Aliaksandr Ziankou
2011.07.29	Jauhien Lipkovich		Blogger	The apartment of Mr.Lipkovich was searched . The search was issued by the investigation of the criminal case in relation with "contempt of the State symbols" that was opened in relation to him for publishing Photoshop pictures.
2011.08.02	Tatstsiana Shaputska	The newspaper Novy Chas	Journalist	The journalist was detained when she was covering a rally in support of political prisoner Zmicier Dashkievich near the prison settlement in Horki (Mahiliou region).
2011.08.23	Viktoryja Ravinskaja	The web site ex-press.by	Journalists	The journalists were detained in Minsk during street information action in support of arrested head of the Human Rights Center "Viasna" Ales Bialiatski organized by human rights defenders and public activists.
	Aleh Matskievich Alena Laptsonak
2011.08.23	Jauhien Hlushkou		Journalist	The journalists were detained in Mahiliou during street information action in support of arrested head of the Human Rights Center "Viasna" Ales Bialiatski organized by human rights defenders and public activists.
	Alina Skarabunova		Journalist
2011.08.24	Ruta Lankininkaite	The TV channel LTV , Lithuania	Reporter	Belarusian border guards did not allow a group of Lithuanian TV journalists to enter the territory of Belarus. Their visas were revoked .
	Jonas Griskonis		Cameraman
2011.08.26	Kastus Shytal	The web site westki.info	Journalist	In the town of Hlybokaje (Vitsiebsk region) policemen detained Kastus Shytal for having taken pictures of the building of Hlybokaje District

				Executive Committee. The journalist was enforced to delete the pictures.
2011.09.28	Lola Buryjeva	The newspaper Novy Chas	Reporter	Policemen detained the reporters in Orsha at the moment when they were shooting a story about economic situation in society.
	Siarhiej Satsiuk	Nasha Niva	Reporter
2011.09.28	Alisa Pol	The newspaper Brestskij Kurjer	Freelance reporter	Alisa Pol was detained near the Central Market in Brest. When the journalist was interviewing city dwellers, policemen accused her of "opposition propaganda".
2011.10.07	Kastus Shytal	The web-site westki.info	Journalist	He was detained by road police on the road from Hlybokaje to Dzisna (Vitsiebsk region) when he was going to "People's Assembly" that had to be held next day. He was charged with use of foul language. Till the court hearing (on October 10), the journalist was held in Miory district office.
2011.10.08	Jan Roman		Journalist	In Hrodna during "People's Assembly" policemen detained the journalist for preventing his working.
2011.10.08	Larysa Shchyrakova		Freelance journalist	In Homiel during "People's Assembly" policemen detained the journalist for preventing filming of the rally by her.
2011.10.08	Zmicier Lupach	The local newspaper Prefiekt-Info	Editor	In Hlybokaje during "People's Assembly", policemen detained the journalist for preventing his working.
2011.10.13	Alina Skrabunova	The web-site 222.by	Journalist	The journalist was questioned at the Prosecutor's Office of Mahiliou Region in relation with a "abusive comment" to the address of judge I.Lanchava on the web site Charter'97 .
2011.10.26	Igor Karmazin	The newspaper Moskovskij Komsomolets	Reporter	Igor Karmazin was deported from Belarus . He was detained on October 25 , immediately after his meeting with journalist Iryna Khalip, wife of former presidential candidate Andrej Sannikau. He was searched, all recordings were deleted from his voice recorder. After that, he was given the document establishing the ban on entry in Belarus.

2011.10.27	Alina Radachynskaja		Freelance TV reporter	The Prosecutor General's Office delivered an official warning to the journalist for cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation.
2011.11.10	Iosif Siaredzich	The newspaper Narodnaja Volia	Editor-in-chief	Iosif Siaredzich was summoned to the Prosecutor General's Office . The pretext for this convocation was the article "People's Assembly as a form of self-organization of citizens" published in Narodnaja Volia on November 9. The Prosecutor's Office believed that this article contradicted the Belarusian law in several aspects.
2011.11.12	Anatol Hatouchyts		Freelance journalist	In Homiel, during "People's Assembly", policemen detained the journalist at a bus stop.
2011.11.12	Mikalaj Bianco		Freelance journalist	In Homiel during "People's Assembly" policemen detained Mikalaj Bianco and held him for about three hours at a precinct.
2011.11.12	Paviel Mitskievich	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Correspondent	In Homiel during "People's Assembly" policemen detained the journalist and deleted all the images of "People's Assembly" from his camera.
2011.11.12	Siarhiej Karpienka	The TV channel Belsat	Journalist	In Lida, during "People's Assembly", policemen detained the journalist and brought him to a local precinct.
2011.11.12	Andrej Fralou		Cameraman	In Hrodna police detained the journalists who went to the border crossing "Bruzhi" to
	Jan Roman		Journalist

	Grażyna Pashtsepa		Journalist	shoot a story about the new rules for leaving of the country. The car with cameraman Andrej Fralou was stopped by road police. The journalists were taken to a police precinct under a threat to use force.
2011.12.19	Tatstsiana Haurylchyk	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Journalist	The journalists were detained during an event organized by the Ukrainian organization "Femen" that took place near the building of the KGB. They were photographing and filming the event. Kitty Green was immediately deported from Belarus to Vilnius accompanied by KGB officers.
	Julija Darashkievich		Freelance journalist
	Ales Barazienka		Freelance journalist
	Kitty Green	"Femen"	Camerawoman
2011.12.19	Viktar Drachou	The news agency France Presse and the newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Belorussii	Photo journalist	He came to the site of "Femen"'s event when it already started and had no opportunity to take pictures. However, he was taken to the KGB and detained .
2011.12.19	Volha Chajchyts		Freelance journalists	The journalists were detained near the Liberty Square. Their documents were checked and the journalists were released after being warned not to film.
	Siarhiej Kavaliou
2011.12.19	Artsiom Liava	The web-site milinkevich.org	Staffer	The journalist was detained in Minsk. He was taken to the Leninski district police department and held there over the night.
2011.12.19	Mikita Brouka	The weekly Novy Chas	Freelance reporter	Police detained Mikita Brouka at the Independence Square in Minsk. He was covering a mass prayer. He was taken to the Maskouski district police department where he was held over the night.
2011.12.24	Siarhiej Sheleh	The state news agency Minsk-News	Photo journalist	Siarhiej Sheleh who was covering the annual march of Santa Clauses in Minsk was detained . The incident happened when the journalist put the backpack on the sidewalk to change the lens in the camera. He was then approached by a man in civilian clothes who ordered him to leave the spot. In response to the journalist's request to be spoken to in a more polite way, the unknown person introduced himself as deputy head of the Centralny district police department and sent for a police detail. Siarhiej Sheleh was taken to the precinct, where he was questioned, photographed and fingerprinted.

2012.01.05	Hieorhij Stankievich	The small-circulation local newspaper Kryvinka	The editor and publisher	The editor was detained in the town of Bieshankovichy when he was distributing the newspaper to dwellers of the district center.
2012.01.06	Tacciana Bublikava		Freelance TV reporter	Tacciana Bublikava was detained in the courthouse of Piershamajski district in Minsk. The judge decided to punish her for contempt of court. At the request of the guards, a report was drawn up against the journalist.
2012.01.08	Ales Barazienka		Freelance TV cameraman	Ales Barazienka was detained in Minsk when he was filming a solidarity action with political prisoners near the KGB building. Later he was sent to the pre-trial detention center.
2012.01.30	Grazyna Shalkievich	Radio Racyja	Reporter	In Hrodna Grazyna Shalkievich was warned verbally in the KGB about criminal responsibility for discrediting the Republic of Belarus and insulting the president.
2012.02.15	Aliaksandr Jarashevich	Radio Racyja	Reporter	In Barysau police detained Aliaksandr Jarashevich. The incident took place when the journalist was doing a story about the protest of workers of one of Barysau plants.
2012.02.16	Mikalaj		Freelance	The Prosecutor's Office of

	Dziatchenia		cameraman	Hrodna Region issued an official warning to the journalist for cooperation with the foreign media (the TV channel Belsat , Poland) without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.02.21	Viktar Parfionienka	Radio Racyja	Reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of Hrodna region issued an official warning about inadmissibility of cooperation with the foreign media (Radio Racyja) without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.02.21	Ales Dzianisau		Reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of Hrodna region issued an official warning to the journalist for cooperation with the foreign media (the TV channel Belsat , Poland) without accreditation the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.02.21	Paviel Sitnik		Journalist	Near Viciebsk road police detained journalist Paviel Sitnik. He was going to the trial of Siarhiej Kavaliienka, a civic activist from Viciebsk.
2012.02.27	Grazyna Shalkievich	Radio Racyja	Reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of Hrodna region issued an official warning for cooperation with the foreign media (Radio Racyja) without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.03.12	Sven Bergmann	The Swedish TV channel SVT	Camerman	Police detained in Minsk a camera crew of the Swedish TV channel SVT, when foreign journalists were going to record an interview with Raman Pratasievich, a participant of "silent" protest rallies. The Belarusian journalists who accompanied the TV crew, were detained with them.
	Olaf Chistopherson		Reporter
	Isabel Sommerfeld		Producer
	Uladzimir Chudziancou	The radio Russian News Service	Reporter
	Illja Kuzniacou		Journalist
2012.03.22	Zmicier Krauchuk		Freelance cameraman	The Prosecutor's Office of the City of Minsk issued an official warning for cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

2012.03.24	Aliaksandr Yarashevich	Radio Racyja	Reporter	Police detained in Minsk Aliaksandr Jarashevich who attended a concert of the international movement "Food Not Bombs". The official reason for the detention was an investigation of use and distribution of drugs. In a police station a report "for using obscene language" was drawn up against the journalist. Until court hearing A.Jarashevich was held for almost three days in a pre-trial detention center.
2012.03.28	Alina Radachynskaja		Freelance journalist	Alina Radachynskaja visited the Prosecutor's Office of the City of Minsk and received an official warning for cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.03.28	Volha Chajchyc		Freelance journalist	The journalist visited the Prosecutor's Office of the City of Minsk and received an official warning about inadmissibility of cooperation with a foreign media without an accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.03.28	Aliaksandr Atroshchankau		Journalist and press secretary of the civil campaign "European Belarus"	Aliaksandr Atroshchankau was taken off the train "Minsk – Moscow" by customs officers in Orsha together with other politicians. Those were going to Brussels to meet representatives of the European Commission. The customs officials said that they were suspected of drug trafficking. The detainees spent almost 24 hours in the pretrial detention center in Orsha waiting for the court hearings.
2012.04.30	Viktoryja Kolchyna		Freelance TV reporter	The reporters were detained in Minsk. They attended a

	Siarhiej Krauchuk		Freelance TV reporter	presentation of the documentary film “The Last Dictator of Europe” as well as other spectators. The detainees were questioned, photographed and fingerprinted.
2012.05.12	Jens Nielson		Journalist	Danish journalist Jens Nielson was searched by customs officers in the Minsk-2 airport for four hours. They confiscated electronic media, a laptop, materials for a news story about the Belarusian trade unions as well as the book “Aliaksandr Lukashenka. The Contours of the Belarusian Model”, by Roy Medvedev. Jens Nielson was not explained the reasons for confiscation.
2012.05.23	Ales Liubianchuk		Freelance TV reporter	The reporters were detained in Minsk by police. It happened when the journalists were interviewing Andrej Bandarenka, a representative of the public association “Platforma”.
	Liubou Liebiedzieva		Freelance TV reporter
2012.05.25	Natallia Vierashchahina	The trade union web site praca-by.info	Editor	Natallia Vierashchahina was detained and searched at the checkpoint “Gudagaj” on the border between Belarus and Lithuania. After an almost three-hours search procedure, her money, laptop and USB stick were confiscated.
2012.05.29	Larysa Shchyrakova		Freelance TV reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of Homiel region issued an official warning to the journalist about inadmissibility of cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.05.31	Siarhiej Balaj	The online newspaper Salidarnasc	Reporter	The journalists were detained by road police in Svietlahorsk district in Homiel region. They were returning from the meeting of dwellers of the village of Jakimava Slabada who protested against construction of a bleached pulp plant near
	Ina Sudzinskaja	Radio Liberty	Reporter
	Alina Radachynskaja		Freelance TV reporter

	Ales Barazienka		Freelance TV reporter	the village. The USB card from Siarhiej Balaj's camera was seized.
2012.06.01	Tacciana Bielashova		Freelance TV reporter	The reporters were detained by police in Minsk. The incident took place in the Gorki Park where they were covering the International Children's Day.
	Volha Chajchyc		Freelance TV reporter
2012.06.01	Jan Roman		Freelance journalist	The journalist who going to cover a picket of the unregistered Union of Poles in Belarus was detained by police in Hrodna.
2012.06.01	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	The journalist who going to cover a picket of the unregistered Union of Poles in Belarus in Hrodna was summoned to police as one of its potential participants. Police warned Poczobut about inadmissibility of violation of law.
2012.06.01	Julija Kaliada			The journalist who was going to cover a picket of the unregistered Union of Poles in Belarus was detained by police in Hrodna. A report of administrative infraction was also drawn up against her.
2012.06.01	Grazyna Shalkievich	The newspaper Glos znad Niemna	Reporter	Grazyna Shalkievich was detained together with the participants of the unregistered Union of Poles in Belarus was detained in Hrodna. A report of administrative infraction was drawn up against her for participation in an unauthorized mass event.
2012.06.15	Aliaksandr Sajenka	The news agency BelaPAN	Photo journalist	The journalists were detained in Lida. The reporters were not allowed to cover the funeral ceremony of a perished pilot. After working at the air base, servicemen approached the journalists and asked a
	Mikalaj Dziatchenia		Freelance TV reporter

	Andrej Fralou		Freelance TV reporter	permission to make photos and video recordings. Then they ordered Aliaksandr Sajenka to erase all the pictures taken at the funeral ceremony. On July 4 Mikalaj Dziatchenia was acquainted with the administrative reports that were drawn up in relation to the journalists in Lida.
2012.06.21	Andrzej Poczobut	The Polish newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza	Reporter	The journalist's apartment was searched, and his computer was confiscated. The reason for the action was a new criminal case opened in relation to Andrzej Poczobut for libeling the president of the Republic of Belarus due to his publications. Mr.Poczobut was taken for an interrogation. As he had refused to talk to an investigator the journalist was taken to a jail . On June 30 Andrzej Poczobut was released and transferred on constant residence in one place. The same day Mr.Poczobut was charged officially . On March 15 he criminal case against Andrei Poczobut was dismissed . All conditions of recognizance also terminated.
2012.06.22	Paviel Sviardlou	European Radio for Belarus	Reporter	Five unidentified plain-clothed men detained Paviel Sviardlou in Minsk near his residence. The journalist was taken to a police precinct in a mini-van where a report was drawn up in relation to him for using obscene language.
2012.06.29	Julija Cialpuk		Freelance journalist	The journalists were detained near the building of the Court of the City of Minsk where they were interviewing the audience. The journalists' passport data were recorded and then they were released.
	Aliaksandr Barazienka		Freelance journalist
2012.07.13	Anton Surapin	The web site Belarusian	Editor	Officers of the KGB made search at the rented apartment of

		News Photos (bnp.by)		Anton Surapin. His photo camera and PC were seized. They were interested in the origin of the pictures of teddy bear with slogans in defense of freedom of speech. Anton Surapin, a student of Journalism, was the first to upload and publish on-line photos of the teddy bears, dropped from a small airplane that crossed illegally the Belarusian state border on July 4, 2012. A Swedish PR-company Studio Total took responsibility for the action "in support of democratic values in Belarus". On July 14, the journalist was detained and spent more than a month in the KGB pre-trial jail in Minsk afterwards. On August 7 the KGB of Belarus informed the public about criminal charges to A. Surapin with assisting a group of people to cross illegally the Belarusian state border. On August 17 the young journalist was released. However, he was forced to sign a recognizance not to leave his residence. On June 28, 2013 the teddy bear drop case was closed.
2012.07.17	Mikalaj Pietrushenka		Freelance journalist	Police detained the journalists in the town of Smaliavichy in Minsk region. They had come from Minsk to cover a meeting of a local deputy with dwellers of a district. In four hours all the journalists were released.
	Lola Buryjeva		Reporter
	Viachaslau Piashko		Cameraman
2012.07.17	Ihar Kazmierchak	The web site orsha.eu	Founder and editor	Police searched the apartment of Ihar Kazmierchak, as well as his parents' apartment. He was questioned about dissemination of pornography through the web site. All this happened a few days after he got registered as an observer at the elections to the Chamber of Representatives in the framework of the campaign "Human Rights Defenders for Free Elections".

2012.07.25	Vital Ruhajn	The European Radio for Belarus	Reporter	Vital Ruhajn was detained in Minsk and taken to the Lieninski district police department where an administrative report for using obscene language was drawn up against him. Then, he was taken to a jail to await his trial.
2012.08.08	Iryna Kozlik	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Bielorusii	Photo journalist	In Minsk, police detained the journalists when they were being photographed with a teddy bear with a parachute and the inscription "No Picture – No Troubles?" The girls spent the night before a trial in a jail.
	Julija Darashkievich		Freelance photographer
2012.08.09	Volha Starascina Dzianis Mikhajlau		Freelance journalists	In Viciebsk plain-clothed police detained the journalists when they were preparing a news story dedicated to the parliamentary elections. They were taken to a police precinct where a preventive talk was held with them about prohibition to film in the downtown area and then they were released.
2012.08.10	Tacciana Bielashova		Freelance reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of the City of Minsk issued an official warning to the journalist about inadmissibility of cooperation with the foreign media (the Polish satellite TV channel Belsat) without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.08.11	Viachaslau Piashko		Cameraman	In Sharkaushchyna in Viciebsk region, police detained the journalists when they were filming how Zmicier Lupach,
	Hanna Aziemsha		Reporter

	Zmicier Lupach	The newspaper Prefect-Info	Editor	Editor of the regional newspaper Prefect-Info was distributing his media in a public place. The journalists were taken to the local police station where their documents were checked and then they were released.
2012.08.14	Hienadz Barbarych	Radio Racyja	Reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of the City of Minsk issued an official warning to the journalist about inadmissibility of cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.08.20	Aliena Sciapanava		Freelance journalist	The Prosecutor's Office of Viciebsk region issued an official warning to the journalist about inadmissibility of cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.08.22	Mikalaj Pietrushenka		Journalist	The journalist was informed that a criminal case was opened in relation to him for "abuse of an agent of public authority." It was based on the article of Mr. Pietrushenka published on August 8 on the web site nash-dom.info under the title "A pedophile won awards for the best children playgrounds". The author allegedly stated that the Deputy Chairman of the Executive Committee of the City of Orsha was suspected in promoting activities of a pedophile. On October 17, the criminal case was closed due to lack of elements of crime in the actions of the journalist.
2012.08.25	Larysa Shchyrakova		Freelance TV reporter	Police detained Larysa Shchyrakova in the village of Liaskavichy, Pietrykau district, where a festival of ethno-cultural traditions was held. Policemen told her that the festival would be attended by President Lukashenka, and Shchyrakova's presence was undesirable. Because the journalist did not want to leave the festival she was taken to the Pietrykau district police department.

2012.09.14	Valier Bulhakau	The magazine ARCHE	Editor-in-chief	Valier Bulhakau was detailed in Hrodna. The incident occurred immediately after a presentation of the book Sovietization of Western Belarus and new issues of ARCHE. Police and tax inspectors asked him about the grounds for disseminating of the publications. All those were confiscated. Mr. Bulhakau had to provide an explanation concerning his alleged unlawful entrepreneur's activities in tax inspection. On September 21 the Department of Financial Investigations (DFI) employees started a check-up in the publishing house which published Arche. On October 18 Valery Bulhakau was fined 500 thousand rubles for unlawful entrepreneur's activities. At the beginning of November he left Belarus, fearing criminal prosecution. On April 11 V. Bulhakau received an official reply from the Department of Financial Investigations that criminal prosecution in his case was rejected.
2012.09.18	Siarhiej Hryc	The news agency Associated Press	News Photographer	In Minsk, plain-clothed policemen detailed the journalists who were covering an election picket of the youth wing of the Tell the Truth campaign. During the incident they were rudely loaded in a van
	Aliaksandr Barazienka		Freelance TV Cameraman

	Vasil Fiadosienka	The news agency Reuters	News Photographer	and taken to the Frunzienski District Department for Internal Affairs. The journalists were told that they had been detained in order to get “proof of their identities”. They were released in about two hours. All pictures were erased from Siarhiej Hryc’s camera.
	Tacciana Ziankovich	EPA (European Press Agency)	News Photographer
	Paviel Padabied	The news agency BelAPAN	Reporter
	Zmicier Rudakou	The German TV channel ZDF	Cameraman
	Aliaksiej Akulau	The German TV channel ZDF	Producer
2012.09.18	Viachaslau Piashko		Freelance TV reporter	The journalists were detained in Minsk by police. They were making video recordings at the street when they were approached by police and taken to a local police precinct for identification. In about three hours they were brought to the Piershamajski district police department. Their camcorder was seized “for inspection”. The video tape was also left in the police precinct.
	Valiancin Mikhalcou		Freelance TV reporter
2012.09.21	Amos Roberts	The Australian TV channel SBS	Reporter	The journalist was searched at the customs office of Minsk-2 airport on his way back home from Belarus. All his equipment and storage media and a teddy bear with a parachute were seized . Amos Roberts was officially accredited at the Belarusian Foreign Ministry and worked in Belarus during a week. In particular, the journalist recorded a news story about the Swedish “teddy bear airdrop” in Belarus. On February 7, 2013 it became known that Amos Roberts received an e-mail from the Australian Embassy in Moscow in which he was informed that he could pick up the equipment, seized from him. Nothing was said about whether the customs office had found anything to justify the search and seizure.

2012.09.23	Zmicier Lasko	The newspaper Komsomolskaja Pravda v Bielorusii	Press photographer	Zmicier Lasko was detained on the electoral precinct after the journalist refused to erase their images taken there.
2012.09.23	Siarhiej Balaj	The online newspaper Salidarnasc	Photographer	Siarhiej Balaj was detained in Minsk when the journalist was taking pictures on the empty Kastychnickaja Square. He was taken to the Centralny district police department allegedly for identity check. All the photos on the camera's memory card were erased. He was released in about two and a half hours.
2012.10.09	Tacciana Haurylchyk	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Camerawoman	Tacciana Haurylchyk was detained in Minsk. Riot police detained the reporter when she was filming an art show in the Kastychnickaja Square in Minsk. She was released about three hours later. All footage was erased from her equipment.
2012.10.22	Larysa Shchyrakova		Freelance journalist	The Prosecutor's Office of Homiel Region issued an official warning to the journalist about inadmissibility of cooperation with a foreign media without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.12.01	Aliena Yakzhyk	The online newspaper Salidarnasc	Press photographer	The journalist was detained by security of a club in Minsk for taking pictures of former Minister of Culture and current Ambassador of Belarus in France Paviel Latushka in an informal setting. A club official demanded to erase the pictures and to promise not to publish them.
2012.12.03	Siarhiej Sierabro	The web site Narodnyja Naviny Viciebsku	Editor	In Viciebsk police detained Siarhiej Sierabro when he was taking pictures of a woodworking plant. Later it became known that the plant was getting ready for a visit of Aliaksandr Lukashenka.

2012.12.18	Alina Litvinchuk		Freelance reporter	The Prosecutor's Office of Brest Region issued an official warning to the journalist about inadmissibility of cooperation with the foreign media (Radio Racyja) without accreditation at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
2012.12.24	Mikalaj Pietrushenka		Freelance journalist	Police detained the journalists in the town of Smaliavichy in Minsk region. The journalists came from Minsk to cover a meeting of a local deputy with dwellers of a district. All storage media of Lola Buryjeva was seized temporarily including her mobile phone. In four hours all the journalists were released.
	Lola Buryjeva		Reporter
	Viachaslau Piashko		Cameraman
2013.01.23	Paviel Sviardlou	The "European Radio for Belarus"	Correspondent	The journalist's accreditation in Belarus was revoked . The basis for appropriate decision of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs became the administrative arrest of a journalist last year.
2013.02.21	Aliaksandr Barazienka	The satellite TV channel Belsat	Cameraman	An official warning was issued to Aliaksandr Barazienka that he must not work for foreign mass media (the Polish TV channel Belsat) without accreditation.
2013.02.28	Hanna Afonina	The news agency BelaPAN	Correspondent	The journalists were detained in Minsk when they were conducting a regular weekly opinion poll. They were taken to the Pershamaiski district police department. In the department the journalists' IDs were checked and copied, the video was looked through, and an hour and a half later they were set free.
	Siarhei Satsiuk		Cameraman
	Vasil Siamashka		Cameraman
2013.03.24	Tatsiana Haurylchyk	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Cameraman	Tatsiana Haurylchyk was detained in an underground passage in Minsk because she was recording policemen there and they did not like that.

2013.03.31	Ina Studzinskaya	The Radio Svaboda	Journalist	The journalist was detained in Minsk when Ina Studzinskaya was interviewing spectators near a theatre. Aliaksandr Lukashenka was among spectators that evening. Policemen explained that they had to check a journalist's identity.
2013.04.19	Aleh Hruzdilovich	Radio Svaboda	Journalist	Two journalists were detained in Minsk when they were covering the action of protest staged by the civil initiative "Against unlawfulness in courts and prosecutor's office". All their video recordings were deleted.
	Siarhei Satsiuk	News agency BelaPAN	Cameraman
2013.04.26	Aliaksandr Barzenka		Independent journalists	The journalists were detained in Astravets where they came to report about a trip of opposition activists to the building site of a nuclear station. Their video cameras were checked, and all the video recorded in Astravets was deleted.
	Nasta Yaumen
2013.04.26	Aksana Rudovich	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Journalists	Two journalists were detained in Minsk after the Chernobyl Way demonstration. They tried to take a picture of a detention of an anarchist Ihar Trukhanovich.
	Iryna Arakhouskaya
2013.04.26	Henadz Barbarych		Journalists	The journalists were detained after the Chernobyl Way demonstration. They were taken to the Soviet district police department and then to a detention center.
	Aliaksandr Yarashevich
2013.05.06	Dzmitry Halko		Blogger	They worked near the detention center in Akrestsina str. where civil activists, politicians and other journalists gathered to meet releasing arrestees. After the event they were detained and brought to the Maskouski district police department.
	Aliaksandr Yarashevich		Journalist

2013.05.13	Aleh Hruzdilovich	Radio Svaboda	Correspondent	Aleh Hruzdilovich was summoned to the prosecutor's office. There he received the official warning about inadmissibility of violating article 34 of the Law on Mass Media "Distributing biased and deliberately distorted information".
2013.05.26	Uladzimir Khilmanovich	The newspaper Niva , Poland	Journalist	The journalist had a visit to the Hrodna department of the KGB where he was warned that several articles of him published in the Bialystok newspaper Niva could cause liability under the criminal article 368 part 1 (discrediting the Republic of Belarus)
2012.05.30	Volha Chaychyts		Independent journalist	The journalist was given an official warning for work for a foreign mass media without accreditation from the prosecutor's office of Smaliavichy district.
2013.06.07	Ales' Silich		Independent journalist	The prosecutor's office of Smaliavichy district issued a warning to Ales' Silich for contributing to a foreign mass media without accreditation.
2013.06.07	Ales' Liauchuk		Independent journalists	In Brest the journalists were prevented their work at the city market of car parts. They were preparing a report how initiators of the campaign "Narodny Referendum" were talking to entrepreneurs and customers at the market.
	Milana Kharytonava
2013.06.12	Aksana Rudovich	The newspaper Nasha Niva	Correspondents	In Vitebsk policemen and plain-clothed people prevented the journalists taking interviews near a court building. On that day a hearing of Andrei Haidukou case started: the young man was charged with high treason.
	Tatsiana Haurylchik
2013.06.16	Ales' Silich		Independent journalist	Ales' Silich was detained when he was making a report in Stowbtsy district about a pig epidemic. The journalist was taken to the local police department. After a protocol was drawn up, a police car took him straight to the railway station.

2013.06.27	Ihar Karney	The Radio Svaboda	Correspondent	The journalists were detained in Minsk when they were covering a businessmen strike. They were dragged from a car by plain-clothed people on their way from the market and taken to the Central district police department.
	Ales' Sivy	The newspaper Narodnaya Volya	Correspondent
	Natallia Kastsiukevich	TUT.by	Journalist	